"Our mission is to love and care for those seeking refuge from war torn countries with the heart of Jesus."

Oasis International

A World of Thanks!

"Give thanks to the Lord for He is good. His loving kindness endures forever." Psalm 136:1

We continue to declare the goodness of the Lord in our lives for all He has done. He has provided for Oasis in miraculous ways and all in His perfect timing.

At Oasis we give thanks to God for His enduring love, for our supporters and volunteers who keep us covered in prayer, financially supporting us and giving their time and talent to help us. How grateful we are for our refugee friends who have touched our lives and shown us what Heaven will be like with every tongue, tribe and nation worshipping God.

We appreciate your consideration of a year-end financial gift to Oasis. You may send contributions to the address below or on our website.

Badur, from Sri Lanka and Joani.

Our refugees are so appreciative of our assistance. Often they say, "Thank you for you."

Kent Henry leading us in worship.

Oasis In The City: "Stories from the heart"

"oasis" a pleasant or peaceful area in the midst of a difficult place: calm in the city

I Heard The Bells On Christmas Day

Praying and Trusting God for His Kingdom to come in St. Louis.

I heard the bells on Christmas Day, their old,
 familiar carols play, and wild and sweet
 The words repeat

Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

And thought how, as the day had come,
 The belfries of all Christendom

Had rolled along the unbroken song,

Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

And in despair I bowed my head;

"There is no peace on earth," I said;

"For hate is strong,

And mocks the song

Of peace on earth, good-will to men!"

Then pealed the bells more loud and deep:

"God is not dead, nor doth He sleep;

The Wrong shall fail, The Right prevail,

With peace on earth, Good-will to men."
