“Our mission is to love and care for those seeking refuge from war torn countries with the heart of Jesus.”

WE CAN DO SOMETHING!!

When Joani spoke to our English classes about the plight of the refugees fleeing from Turkey to Greece to Europe, we decided we had to do something about it. Two of our English teachers are there now helping the refugees, Mike Greiner, in Macedonia and Sara Owens, in France. When we told our English classes about it they wanted to collect money for the refugees in Europe and send the money to Mike and Sara for supplies (water, food, clothes and blankets). When Jesus healing the blind man, the disciples and Pharisees could only question whether the blind man sinned to make him blind. They only saw a problem in the man. But Jesus “saw” the man without judgement and healed him. He did something for the man. Can we do the same with these refugees and do something? You can give a financial gift to match what the refugees in our English classes are collecting.
